Drawing Dialogue Phase 2 (2017-2018)

- The exhibition for Drawing Dialogue Phase 2 can take place anytime in as many locations as possible anytime between 1 August 2018 and 31 July 2019. Therefore if anyone has any ideas and suggestions, please let us know.

Commitment:

Artists' full commitment is required. As the time line is carefully considered and the applicants will exchange the drawings between 3 artists, your full commitment to deadlines and to continue working on this project until August 2018 is imperative.

Also commit to professionally document and send to the organiser all the phases of the drawings you have created or received from your collaborators.

A participation fee of 50 euros will be required when participants are ready for their first drawing exchange. (PayPal transfer). These fees will be used for exhibition fees, display devices, additional postage fees. Fees can be waived for participants that actively contribute to the running of this project. Please see rules above in the application form.
